

Poetry

The team will spend many long hours walking to reach the South Pole. At times, it might be very windy or snowy so they could have problems being able to hear each other. Imagine if you could not chat to your friend and how slowly that might make time pass.

Help the expedition team by creating an acrostic poem using a word from your wordsearch.

Here is an example to help you.

Image a

Cold

Environment

Illustrate your best efforts and send them to justine@commonwealthexpedition.com, remember to include a photo of yourself, so we can add it to the website.